

GERMAN CHANCELLOR AND CABINET RESIGN

PRESIDENT EBERT CALLS FOR A NEW MINISTRY TO ACT

Retiring Chancellor Asked to Form New Ministry—Talk Heard of Civilian Dictator—Poincare's Lack of Recognition of Abandonment of Passive Resistance Criticized

(By the Associated Press)
BERLIN, Oct. 3.—Dr. Gustav Stresemann and the members of his ministry resigned from office tonight. President Ebert then called upon the retiring chancellor to form a new cabinet.

The Stresemann government retired from office with the relinquishment of passive resistance in the Ruhr and the Rhineland as the only active accomplishment to its credit. While criticism of its usefulness on this score would seem to be not entirely fair in view of the hopelessly tangled legacy assumed by it as the successor of the Cuno ministry, the Stresemann coalition in its political composition was such as to preclude in the long run any hopes of productiveness in the nature of financial and economic reforms, on account of the conflicting currents, which hampered its deliberations. The chancellor's well known optimism which was praised as a useful asset when he assumed office, was unable to overcome the task of getting an economically and politically moribund Germany back on its feet.

CONVICTS HOLD PENITENTIARY; GUARD KILLED

Kentucky Governor
Orders Out Machine Gun Troops

(By the Associated Press)
EDDYVILLE, Ky., Oct. 3.—Gov. E. P. Morrow has ordered Troop C, machine gun company of Hopkinsville, composed of twenty men and officers and said to be heavily armed to proceed immediately to the state penitentiary here to aid in subduing three convicts barricaded in the dining room of the prison who shot and killed one guard and wounded three others early today.

The troops are expected to arrive about 6 o'clock.

Penitentiary officials announced this afternoon that they had succeeded in obtaining a machine gun from a coal mining company at Nortonville and at present have set it up and trained on the dining hall where the convicts are barricaded.

Upon arrival of a machine gun squad of the Louisville police department, officials of Eddyville penitentiary are to hold a conference with leaders of the reinforcements to determine whether an immediate attack is to be directed against the three convict murderers barricaded in the dining room of the prison plant was announced late today.

Loss of Destroyers Thrown on Congress

(By the Associated Press)
SAN DIEGO, Cal., Oct. 3.—Had congress not refused to grant appropriations "for the proper equipment of destroyer squadrons," the disaster in which seven ships and 23 lives were lost off Honda, Calif., Sept. 8, would never have occurred, Captain James H. Tomb, chief of destroyer squadron 12 today told the naval court of inquiry investigating the disaster.

The navy department has tried repeatedly but with no avail to obtain appropriations for the construction of ships properly equipped to act as destroyer squadron leaders. Captain Tomb asserted by ordinary destroyers with insufficient quarters for the commander-in-chief's staff and carrying no sonic depth finder with

JAPAN'S NEEDS IN REBUILDING ARE SET FORTH

Assistance of Hoover
Asked to Prevent Profiteering

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 3.—American producers of building and other materials necessary for reconstruction in Japan have been asked by Secretary Hoover at the instance of the Japanese government to protect the sufferers from profiteering and price advances. Larger producing organizations and trade associations representing industries concerned have in almost every case pledged cooperation in the attempt to hold the price levels to a fair basis. The government's action which has been purposely kept in semi-secrecy to prevent unnecessary market price movements became known today through the Southern Pine association which Mr. Hoover has been in communication.

H. G. Berckes, manager of the association to which Mr. Hoover addressed a message saying that 250,000,000 feet of lumber would be required by Japan during the next few months and that no price advance over pre-disaster levels should be allowed in its supply, replied that it "could not legally participate in any price understanding."

"You are misstating the nature of my inquiry," Secretary Hoover replied to Mr. Berckes. "There is no intention to suggest the fixing of prices. In order to secure the Japanese business for our market they should be assured of fair treatment. For that reason I desired to be certain that it would not be the policy of your members to profiteer out of this disaster."

Explaining the situation, Mr. Hoover later gave out a statement which declared that nearly all producers of reconstruction materials in the United States had promised to cooperate in the price policy.

BIG LOSSES CLAIMED IN THE OIL BUSINESS

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—That independent oil companies lost $500,000,000 last year was the contention of E. W. Marland, president of the Marland Refining company of New York in an address before the convention of the American Oil Men's association here today.

"They spent more money drilling wells last year than they received from the selling of oil."

"Several years ago $5 per cent of all the oil was produced by the small independent companies. This was what we called free oil, not under the domination of the major oil interests. Today 75 to 80 per cent of all the oil is produced by the Standard Oil or major companies; not more than 25 per cent by the independents."

"In my opinion the Standard Oil company has been and still is the greatest constructive force in the industry. The public and the producer need the Standard Oil, but the Standard Oil needs a healthy independent co-operative marketing, refining and producing system."

"Independent companies can only survive on free oil and the reduction of the price of crude oil is destroying your own source of supply."

ASKS REMOVAL OF MILITARY HEADS

TULSA, Okla., Oct. 3.—Orders from the adjutant general's office asking removal of Colonel I. Head and Captain Murray Sells and all their aides and assistants from the offices of the county sheriff and city police commissioner respectively were served this afternoon from Oklahoma City.

The order was expected to block hearings Friday in the supreme court on quo warranto proceedings instituted last week in behalf of the sheriffs and police commissioners.

The military supervisors were placed in the two offices under Governor J. C. Walton's martial law proclamation September 14.

MINING RESUMED
Essen, Oct. 3.—(By The A. P.)—The miners generally thought the Ruhr resumed work today according to a reliable German mining authority. It is said they returned to their jobs with the professed intention of bringing the output up to last year's standard as soon as possible.

OPINION ON NATIONAL BANK OPERATION BY DAUGHERTY

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—National banks may establish branches within the cities of their location for the receipt of deposits and the cashing of checks, but such branches may not engage in a general banking business Attorney General Daugherty holds in an opinion just submitted to Comptroller of the Currency Daves.

Explaining the opinion today to the joint congressional banking committee Mr. Daves said he was of the opinion that branches for the performance of even these limited functions could not be established in localities where the state laws or practices prohibit state banks from rendering similar services.

Branch Banking
Discussing the branch banking business at length, the comptroller declared that the development of such banking, unless curbed, will mean the destruction of the national banks and of the federal reserve system and the substitution of a highly centralized private controlled reserve system. He urged that the federal reserve board be given power to refuse admission to the reserve system of institutions engaged in general branch banking and to curb further extension of this principle by member banks.

Hamilton Recommends
Charles S. Hamilton a member of the federal reserve board told the commission that the board was prepared to recommend to congress as a means of inducing state banks in rural communities to join the federal reserve system that such banks in fixing a basis for the computation of their reserves be permitted to deduct from their deposits checks in process of collection from reserve banks. This would serve to reduce the reserve requirement he said, adding that many banks refrained from joining the system because they thought the amount of reserves demanded by law was too high.

LABOR FEDERATION FACED WITH MANY NEW PROPOSITIONS

Adoption Would Mean Departure from Previous Policies

(By the Associated Press)
PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 2.—Two issues loomed big in the opinion of labor leaders tonight as committees continued to work on a mass of resolutions introduced at the annual convention of the American Federation of Labor here.

From three states and from one of the large international unions have come demands that the American Federation of Labor enter actively into politics and from three states there have been resolved suggestions that unions amalgamate into single organizations, each to cover one industry.

Adoption of either of these would involve a departure from the policies of the federation in recent years. Labor leaders however predicted that the conservative element at the convention would be strong enough to swamp both movements. Hoots greeted efforts to bring a resolution on recognition of soviet Russia before the convention with a request that it be transferred to the committee on international relations to which it had been assigned.

Among the 95 resolutions before the convention, are protests against injunctions, demand for election of all federal judges by popular vote and for laws for abolition of child labor.

GINNING OF FIRST COTTON CELEBRATED

(By the Associated Press)
CAIRO, Ill., Oct. 3.—What was said to be the first bale of cotton ginned in Illinois, was ginned here today amid ceremonies attended by city officials and southern Illinois agriculturists.

The cotton was grown near Villa Ridge and cotton growers from the south who have visited the southern Illinois fields, in which many acres of cotton were planted this year, pronounced it of the finest grade.

Climatic conditions in this vicinity, it was pointed out, were detrimental to the boll weevil.

TRIBUTE IS PAID MINISTERS' WIVES AT M. E. SESSION

Delegates to Rock River Conference Express Sentiment

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—Ministers' wives, working side by side with their pastor husbands in the work of the church, were given a share in the tribute paid today by delegates to the annual Rock River conference of the Methodist Episcopal church.

The occasion was a devotional service in memory of ministers and ministers' wives who have died during the last year.

"The women of the parsonage have not always had the credit due them," declared the Reverend J. Hastie Odgers, one of the speakers at the services.

"Few realize the burdens which fall upon those good women, who without having been called to the Christian ministry, yet have the duties of the ministry thrust upon them."

Various church institutions, the Old Peoples' Home, the Agard Rees Home, Wesley Memorial Hospital and the Chicago Theological Seminary among them, were discussed at the evening session tonight with R. Clarence Brown as chairman.

FREEMAN'S DEATH IS BEING INVESTIGATED

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—At the request of Dr. Norman Zolla, coroner's physician, deputy coroner Charles F. Kennedy today continued the inquest into the death of Harry L. Freeman, chief clerk in the state auditor's office at Springfield, until November 1.

Freeman, who was 51 years old, died in his room at a local hotel Tuesday. Although it is known that he had been under treatment for heart trouble Dr. Zolla said there was a possibility that he died from an overdose of medicine. Freeman's vital organs were sent to Dr. William D. McNally, coroner's chemist, for analysis.

BOYS DISCOVER HEAD OF MAN

Pittsburgh, Oct. 3.—Three boys playing on the bank of the Monongahela river tonight found the head of a man imbedded a foot or more in the sand. The head is believed to be that from the headless body of a white man found today in the girls' dressing room of the South Side bathing pool.

LIGHTNING HITS FUEL OIL TANK

Wichita, Falls, Texas, Oct. 3.—A 55,000 barrel fuel oil tank struck by lightning early this morning at the Waggoner Refinery Tank Farm two miles from Wichita was still burning tonight and owners said there was no possibility of the tank or its contents being saved.

FIGHT CALLED OFF

Columbus, Ga., Oct. 3.—(By The A. P.)—The McGraw-Edgerton fight heavyweight championship fight, scheduled to be held here tomorrow afternoon was called off tonight when it was announced that Mike McGraw, the champion, had sustained a broken hand in training.

DAIRYMEN ARE RECEIVED BY THE PRESIDENT

Welcomed as Engaged in Promotion Human Welfare

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Delegates to the world's dairy congress, concluding their Washington sessions today, were received at the white house by President Coolidge who in a brief address of welcome declared the meeting indicated clearly that the industry had become "a main stay to commerce and a support to international friendship."

"Your presence here," President Coolidge said, "indicates especially the importance that this industry has obtained. It is important in the building up of the race. As a food product there is no substitute for that which comes from the dairy."

"You do not come representing governments, you come representing people. Commerce and industry are the interplay, the relationship, not between governments but between groups of different people."

Promoting Welfare.
"I take pleasure in welcoming you as those who are engaged in an activity for the promotion of human welfare, the building up and the strengthening of all that which is best in mankind."

The delegates tonight began moving to Philadelphia where a session will be held tomorrow. Later the conference will convene at Syracuse, N. Y.

Today's session was devoted to technical questions, important among which were the international aspects of the industry.

Former Governor Lowden of Illinois, stressed the importance of pure bred of high bred cattle in this country and declared that less than three per cent of the milk cows in this country are pure bred.

DR. DUGDALE CLAIMS CANCER INHERITED

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—Using photographs of individuals at different stages of lives, which he said, showed how cancer vibrations increased in intensity until the actual outward symptoms appeared, Dr. Frederick Dugdale of Boston today gave a demonstration before five hundred physicians from all parts of the United States at the convention of the Middle States Society of Electronic Medicine.

In every case of cancer, according to Dr. Dugdale the disease had been inherited. Hundreds of cases have proved this he said.

According to Dr. Dugdale, the determination of cancer from 30 to 60 years before its manifestation made it possible to wipe out the disease by checking it in infancy or early childhood. At the closing session of the convention the physicians organized the American Electronic Research association with the object of teaching more widely the electronic method discovered by Dr. Albert Abrams of San Francisco of creating free clinics for children in all large cities and of establishing sanatoriums.

CORN HITS ABOVE THE DOLLAR MARK

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—Corn soared above the dollar mark in Chicago and on most of the other leading markets of the country today for the first time since October 1, 1920. Yellow corn sold in Chicago at $1.01 1/2 and white and mixed at $1.01.

Actual scarcity has been the reason given by brokers for the steady rise of corn prices. Today's quotations are up $1 to 1 1/2 cents since September 17.

DESCENDANT OF AIDE TO WASHINGTON DIES

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Joseph Frederick Ward, descendant of Colonel Joseph Ward, a member of the military staff of George Washington during the Revolution and himself a surviving member of the Army of the Potomac, died today at his home in Evanston, where he was a pioneer resident and former president of the National City Bank.

BANK HEAD AND OFFICERS ARRESTED

Ottawa, Oct. 3.—H. J. Daly, president of the suspended Home Bank, three directors and the chief accountants, were arrested today by dominion and provincial authorities in connection with the collapse of the bank August 17.

FIRST GUN FIRED IN LEGAL BATTLE ON IN OKLAHOMA

Governor Obtains Temporary Injunction Against State Election Board—Move on Foot to Convene Grand Jury to Investigate the Past Actions of the Chief Executive

(By the Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Oct. 3.—Governor J. C. Walton's attack on the legality of yesterday's election on a constitutional amendment to permit an impeachment session of the state legislature was in full swing tonight with more than a third of the returns in the state not yet tabulated.

His first gun in the fight was fired this afternoon when he sought and obtained in state district court a temporary restraining order preventing the state election board from certifying the returns to the secretary of state.

Hearing on the application to make the order permanent was set for October 9. Observers on both sides anticipated a lull in the contest between the governor and the legislature. The order was granted by Judge Tom G. Chambers, an appointee of Governor Walton. In his application the executive alleged the election was illegal because the proposed constitutional amendments submitted were not properly advertised before the election.

He declared that thousands of armed special deputies commissioned by sheriffs throughout the state had intimidated voters and this combined with alleged influence exerted by the Ku Klux Klan had kept more than 200,000 persons from the polls.

Close advisers of the governor declared that the election yesterday could not be regarded as a repudiation to him. They said that in the general election of 1922 more than 500,000 votes were cast, while in yesterday's election they estimated the total vote will not exceed 300,000 when the official count is made. They said that they expected 75,000 of the votes cast to be against the amendment. This they said would leave only 225,000 cast "by the Ku Klux Klan and their adherents," making the total of those who did not vote for the amendment more than 275,000.

Representative W. D. McFee and other legislative opponents of the governor leading the move for his impeachment, declared the vote was an overwhelming rebuke of the executive.

Where Interest Centers.
Interest in the tangled situation will shift tomorrow to a hearing in state district court of an injunction sought by members of the legislature to bar the governor and his representatives from interfering with their attempt to convene an impeachment session. The injunction suit was brought following action of the military task Wednesday in dispersing at the governor's order a session called by a majority of the members without his sanction.

The action was instituted before it was determined that the legislative amendment would be voted on in yesterday's election.

Meanwhile a new attack was launched today against the official acts of Governor Walton by Campbell Russell, a bitter political enemy of the governor, who circulated the initiative petition for the legislative referendum.

Jury Investigation.
This time, it was a petition for a grand jury in district court here to investigate charges that Governor Walton has misused public monies and to inquire into the appointment of thousands of state secret service agents by the executive. More than the required number of signatures were obtained and the petition was filed in what was said to have been the (Continued on Page Four)

MUNSEY PUTS FORTH CLAIM OF NEW YORK

Why Political Conventions Should be Held There

(By the Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Declaring that New York had financed the national campaigns of both Democratic and Republican parties for fifty years, Frank Munsey publisher, today told a committee which aims to bring the next Democratic convention and the Republican convention of 1924, to this city, that a rejection of New York's invitation by either party would be "little short of impudent."

The statement, which comprised Mr. Munsey's entire speech, culminated a meeting at the Biltmore Hotel of business, financial and industrial leaders who have launched a campaign to boost New York as the convention city.

The committee approved plans for raising $250,000 civic fund for the convalesce. The money, to be collected from trades and individuals would be used to entertain the 400,000 delegates and tourists who, it is estimated, would come here in connection with the convention.

Sponsors of the plan emphasized its non-partisanship declaring the chief aim to "cure New York of its provincialism" and dispel ideas, which they declared prevalent in the west that New York is all Broadway, white lights and booze.

"We want the delegates to gather here so that they may return to their 48 states with a better feeling for this beautiful wholesome city," former Judge Morgan J. O'Brien told the committee of which he is chairman at a luncheon.

condition which surely American citizens are not acquainted with. This money, he added, cannot be used by the Indian owners except by authority granted by the United States commissioner of Indian affairs.

"What we as Indians complain of is that not a single owner of the $35,000,000 has a bank book or any proof of ownership. This surely is not business-like, safe, or confidence-inspiring."

"Some of the manipulations of these funds have been scandalous. An agent in Oklahoma defrauded Indians under his supervision out of more than $100,000. Private investigators brought about this agent's conviction and he is serving sentence now."

Indians Have Money But No Pass Books

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—Officials of the Indian bureau at Washington give out statements as the great wealth of individual Indians but fail to state that they cannot get this money except over the signature of Indian agents, Robert J. Hamilton of the Black Foot tribe declared here today before the society of American Indians.

Hamilton declared Edgar B. Merritt, assistant commissioner of Indian affairs had given out that individual Indians had on deposit in banks of the country $35,000,000. He declared that "while this sounds like prosperity, the remainder of the facts disclose a

OLD AGE AND GOLF.
Some British physicians are said to be concerned over the fact that 12 elderly Englishmen have died this year while playing golf.
The physicians have seen in that a warning that men in middle or later years should not play golf.
Following such a line of reasoning, it appears that elderly persons should cease going to bed or getting up or carrying on their regular work or retiring from business or doing any other fairly common and normal thing. Mortality statistics show that many people die while doing one or another of these things.
John D. Rockefeller would probably not thank any physician for ordering him from the golf links.
Again and again it is shown that general health is more important than specific fads of diet or exercise or fancy treatments.
So, too, is a sane balance in living, giving to work and reaction, sleep, social intercourse and food,
each its proper time and attention.

FISHING BY MACHINERY
Some European genius of a fisherman has invented a device that catches fish by a sort of vacuum cleaning process. There is a big wire net that is dragged behind the boat, along the bottom, scooping in the fish. From the net a water pipe works by a centrifugal pump carries them up onto the deck in a flowing stream.

A New York man has worked out the same idea a little differ-ently. He has a submarine chaser fitted up with a wire scoop in front, with a bucket belt worked by machinery hauling up the fish.
Thus the most leisurely of occupations bids fair to become one of the most efficient. It is a mournful outlook for the sportsman, and will be condemned accordingly by men who fish simply for the love of fishing. If fishing is regarded, however, as an industry whose purpose is to produce food, there is less objection.
A fish dredge may be no worse in character than an oyster dredge, if care is taken not to destroy the small fish.

FOOD AND DOPE.
A writer in the Manufacturer's Record maintains that the chief cause of a craving for narcotic drugs is hunger.
The narcotic habit, he explains,
"results from undernourished and overwrought nerves, seeking a palliative that should have been found in plenty of proteins and carbohydrates. During the war we used to shout, 'Food will win the war!' With equal truth might we say today, 'Food will prevent the narcotic habit.' Plenty of food is an aid to many things besides the mere bodily development, for with it goes a certain spiritual quality predisposing a people to right things, saving them from degeneracy."
If food is a preventive for debauchation, it may be objected, why should this evil be more prevalent in the United States than elsewhere, when our people are so much more prosperous and well fed? There must be other important factors involved.
Nevertheless there is probably a good deal in the suggestion. It is well known that well-fed people are less likely to indulge in excess in alcohol or tobacco—both drugs—than those who whether from lack of food or from poor selection or bad cooking are undernourished. It might be found, on investigation, that the majority of persons falling easy prey to narcotic drugs suffered previously from a physical hunger which the nervous and mental cravings that hunger produces.

"Fight dope with food" might be a good motto, both for prevention and cure, especially with growing children. Heroin or morphine, like alcoholic drinks, will have less attraction to a full stomach.

WHITE HALL COUPLE OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Baker
Have Been Married Fifty-Six Years.
White Hall, Oct. 3.—Today is the 56th anniversary of the marriage of John S. Baker and Miss Sarah Lakin. The ceremony was performed in the home of the bride's father, Thomas Lakin, by Rev. T. J. Bryan, pastor of the M. E. church, the Lakins residing on King street. The couple has since resided in White Hall and vicinity, and have reared a family of four children, who surprised the couple by arranging a celebration dinner in their honor last Sunday.
Their only son, George, did not get here from Rockford, but Miss Mary, traveling in the interest of penmanship in the schools and other educational institutions of the state, was here, and she, together with the two married daughters, Mrs. Frank Culbertson and Mrs. Ernest Frank, handled the affair in a way that would last well over the anniversary date. Five grand children were present and five absent, the absentees being the children of George Baker of Rockford and also a daughter of Mrs. Culbertson, Mrs. Elmer Bishop, residing at Alton, the latter having the only great grand-child.
During the first half of their married life Mr. Baker was engaged in farming on Apple Creek Prairie, west of White Hall, and then came into town. For nearly twenty years Mr. Baker was mail messenger for the local postoffice, resigning ten years ago.
The couple has resided in their present home on Centennial street for twenty years. Mrs.
Baker is in rather frail health, which has recently prevented her activity in the affairs of the Christian church. Her husband is an ardent G. A. R. man, he having served with Company I, 108th Illinois Infantry, and don't look a bit older than he did when he was handling the mail.

WILL MAKE ADDRESS AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

On next Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Sunday school rooms at the Central Christian church, the Women's Missionary society of that church will celebrate the 49th anniversary of the Christian Women's Board of Missions with a special program which has been prepared. Mrs.
Elmer Ellis will render vocal selections and C. H. Wilson, who is a returned Japan missionary will deliver the principal address of the evening. A good crowd is expected and all who are interested in missionary work are cordially invited to attend.

BEGINS WORK ON LOCAL CIRCUIT

Rev. H. R. Wardell, who was appointed by the recent Methodist conference for the churches of Hebron, Salem and Asbury, has entered upon his work and everything indicates a good year. The regular appointments to be kept next Sunday will be: Hebron 9:30 a. m., Shiloh 11 a. m., and Asbury 7:30 p. m.
The new pastor hopes to have large audiences at all three places and that the work may move along enthusiastically thru all the coming months.

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT THE WEATHER

White Hall Man Compiles Figures on Condition of Weather During Past Two Years.

White Hall, Oct. 2.—A compilation of weather conditions for the month of September has been prepared by R. B. Pearce, co-operative observer of the weather bureau, which shows a maximum temperature of 89 degrees on the 28th, the highest reading on record at White Hall for so late in the month, and it was the highest during the month just closed. The average or mean temperature was 67.5 degrees, only four tenths of a degree above normal. The lowest reading was 35 on the 14th, on which date there was light frost, the first frost of the season, but no damage resulted.

The total precipitation of 3.47 inches was only a tenth of an inch below normal. The rainfall during the month was so distributed as to seriously interfere with farm work, and there has been little progress in the matter of replenishing water supplies. Apple creek to the east and south of White Hall about four miles was bank full during the last two days on account of heavy rains in that territory, but which did not come sufficiently close to White Hall to benefit the municipal reservoir supply. The heaviest fall in 24 hours was 1.11 inches on the 18th, and there were thunder storms on the 1st, 5th, 6th, 27th, 28th and 30th.

The situation with reference to the water shortage has caused much speculation as to the amount of rainfall during the past eighteen months, and in order that weather cranks and others may have the record in full for their deliberation and deductions, herewith is appended the total by months with the normal and departures from normal, from January, 1922. It will be noted that there is a frequency of minus months over the plus ones, and the reader may make his own calculations as to the distribution and what is immediately probable in connection with the established fact that there is hardly any perceptible variation in the average of temperature or precipitation over a series of months. With that fact fixed in your mind you can take the following down with some degree of intelligence.

1922	Total Precip.	Normal	Departure
Jan.	2.30	2.61	minus 0.31
Feb.	0.84	2.32	minus 1.48
March	7.97	2.94	plus 5.03
April	8.28	3.55	plus 4.73
May	2.57	4.63	minus 2.06
June	1.05	3.69	minus 2.64
July	1.92	3.58	minus 1.66
Aug.	1.27	3.06	minus 1.79
Sept.	1.20	3.57	minus 2.37
Oct.	1.93	2.45	minus 0.52
Nov.	3.62	2.37	plus 0.65
Dec.	1.75	2.04	minus 0.29

1923	Total Precip.	Normal	Departure
Jan.	0.95	2.61	minus 1.66
Feb.	0.83	2.32	minus 1.49
March	4.86	2.94	plus 1.92
April	2.58	3.55	minus 0.97
May	2.31	4.63	minus 2.32
June	2.65	3.69	minus 1.04
July	1.72	3.58	minus 1.86
Aug.	4.81	3.06	plus 1.75
Sept.	3.47	3.57	minus 0.10

The annual normal rainfall is 36.81 inches at White Hall.

THOMPSON IS FREED OF MURDER CHARGE

(By the Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—Fred G. Thompson who admitted being the husband of one woman, while he lived as the wife of another man, was found not guilty of the murder of Richard Tesmer, shot in a holdup, by a jury here today, the verdict being returned after approximately two hours deliberation.

The case was given to the jury about 3:45 o'clock after Assistant State's Attorney Justin F. McCarthy concluded his closing argument and Judge John R. Caverly read 39 instructions to the jury men.

When the verdict was read they crowded about Thompson who greeted everyone affectionately who came to congratulate him. He smilingly climbed the jury rail while newspaper photographers "shot" him with the jury.

His first wish expressed after learning the verdict was for new dresses. His acquittal was reported to have come on the fourth ballot.

FIRST GUN FIRED IN LEGAL BATTLE ON IN OKLAHOMA

(Continued from Page One) shortest time on record for such proceedings in Oklahoma City. It is alleged that the governor used state highway department employees in violation of the law to check the initiative proposal in an effort to substantiate his claim that many of the signatures were forgeries. Both the secretary of state and the state supreme court held the petition valid.

A grand jury called to investigate similar charges was prevented from meeting three weeks ago by military authorities enforcing the executive decree of martial law.

Governor's Charges. Charging that the Ku Klux Klan controlled yesterday's election, Governor Walton issued a statement tonight pledging the "American people" that the issue whether the "invisible empire" shall supplant constitutional government in Oklahoma would be decided in the special election on December 6. This was called by the governor as a substitute for yesterday's election which was proclaimed illegal by executive decree. Only the legislative proposal will be submitted.

"The Klux guns of the nation are now trained on me," Governor Walton declared in his statement. "I am daily in receipt of threats of assassination, but I had rather die by the hand of an assassin than die the death of a coward. The fight is to a finish. There will be no compromise. In the next sixty days will be fought the most historic political battle since the Civil War."

Declaring there is no Klan issue in Oklahoma "except in the hallucinations of a distorted brain," Representative McBee later issued a statement in which he said:

"The legislative committee has repeatedly denied that there is a Klan issue in Oklahoma. We are as ready to protect the interests of one sect, creed, denomination or race as another. We are true Americans, open and above board, recognizing the spirit and letter of the constitution of the United States and constitutional government."

"We realize that Governor Walton uses his smoke screen of 'Klan issue' to fool the people out of Oklahoma. He has failed to fool our own people as is evidenced by the overwhelming rebuke at the ballot box yesterday. There is not and has never been a Klan issue in Oklahoma except in the hallucinations of a distorted brain."

The five defendants are Chief of Police Herbert Haas, police inspector Hoefner, criminal police inspector Wollenberg, Major Adolf Engel, who is commander of the security police and Lieutenant Voght.

SENATOR ESSINGTON EXPRESSES HIS HOPE

(By the Associated Press)

STREATOR, Ill., Oct. 3.—An impromptu reception with a brass band, the usual number of leading citizens and other "trimmings" was accorded State Senator Thurlow Essington upon his return here tonight from Chicago where he was selected from a group of six candidates to oppose Governor Small for the Republican nomination in the next gubernatorial election. A large number of citizens of Streator, Senator Essington's home town and the city in which he was born, were at the station and marched him to the city park where "the future governor" was introduced by W. S. Jones, a local attorney and one of Essington's representatives at the Chicago conference. Senator Essington said he would not discuss the charges against Governor Small, "but hoped to pull Illinois out of the mire." He expected a bitter fight as bitter as one he said as the recent one in which he was re-elected to the state senate from LaSalle county in the face of administration opposition.

NEW INVENTIONS TO STEADY BIG CANNON

CHATHAM, England, (AP)—Important experiments are being made here with a gyroscopic instrument designed to abolish the rolling of warships. The apparatus, for which great things are claimed by the inventor, has been fitted to a ship in the Chatham Dockyard, and a novel method has been employed during the preliminary tests. Platforms have been constructed enabling parties of men to run on and off the ship, which lies moored in one of the basins. In this way artificial rolling is set up for as every nautical man knows, a vessel is surprisingly sensitive to the movement of a number of people from one side to the other. Thorough tests are to be made with the gyroscope at sea. It is generally agreed that if the invention proves a success it will have an almost revolutionary effect on naval warfare, because one of the greatest difficulties which the naval gunner has to encounter at present is the continual rolling of the ship.

By the introduction of large bilge keels and other improvements in design, naval architects have been able to reduce the rolling very considerably during the last few years, but many difficulties still present themselves. The modern battleship is so enormously heavy that, once she starts rolling, a long time elapses before she recovers her normal balance.

Some Fire Prevention Notes

A cigaret butt, carelessly dropped thru a bull's eye in the sidewalk, started the conflagration which burned 80 blocks of the city of Baltimore, with a loss of $40,000,000.

An electric pressing iron, left with the current turned on, was the cause of the $5,000,000 fire at Augusta, Ga.

Most fires start from small beginnings. Carelessness is responsible for fully three-fourths of them. Carefulness in handling the things which commonly cause fires will prevent them.

The loss by fire in the United States last year was $520,000,000, enough to have built the Panama Canal. It is estimated that 15,000 lives are lost by fire or burns in this country each year. In other words, almost half as many Americans are sacrificed to fire each year as died in battle during the World War.

The Illinois losses run about $20,000,000 a year, enough to build the proposed $100,000,000 bond issue roads in five years.

There were no big conflagrations in the United States last year. The tremendous loss total represents the piling up of the usual losses day by day.

Three-fourths of the losses are insured. Insurance is only a means of distributing the losses.

wounded were W. W. Gilbert, believed fatally shot; C. P. Gillihan shot thru hips and V. P. Mattingly, shot thru the body. Gilbert and Gillihan were taken to a Paducah hospital, but Mattingly whose death physicians said was a matter of hours, was kept here.

Gilbert lay for nearly six hours in the spot where he was shot down, exposed to fire from the barricaded convicts. He was able eventually to drag himself to a point where rescuers could reach him without being exposed to fire.

The convicts Monte Walters of Louisville; Lawrence Griffith, Mayfield and Harry Ferland, Covington or Newport initiated their desperate bid for freedom in the shirt factory of the prison early today, according to some of the guards.

Between 40 and 100 convicts were in the room, the guards said when three men seized and bound Lee Scholes, lone guard there and with automatic pistols in their hands made a dash for the main entrance to the prison, firing at every guard they met.

The shots attracted guards from all parts of the prison to the scene and under a heavy fire the convicts were forced to take refuge in the dining room, a two story brick building in the center of the prison grounds. From vantage points in upstairs windows of the dining room, the convicts were able to direct a withering fire which forced the guards to take cover.

Louis Hill a prison guard is in the dining room building in which the convicts are barricaded, prison officials said tonight. Whether Hill has been taken prisoner by the convicts or had succeeded in concealing himself and is waiting for an opportunity to catch the men off guard and attempt to capture them single handed, it was impossible to determine.

FALLS IN ASPHALT; REMAINS ALL NIGHT

Canton, Ohio, Oct. 3.—After chopping with axes for more than two hours today, workmen succeeded in rescuing P. P. Hasson, 36, from a block of asphalt where he had been embedded all night. Only his head, right arm and shoulder were visible.

Hasson fell over a small embankment into a pool of warm asphalt while walking near an asphalt plant last night. He became exhausted trying to free himself, and went to sleep. In the meantime the asphalt hardened. His calls for help were finally heard by a workman shortly before 6 o'clock this morning.

Hasson apparently suffered no serious effects.

J. E. Thompson of Murrayville was a local business caller Wednesday.

PRODUCE REVIEW

The volume of poultry marketed each year is increasing, and it is interesting in passing, to notice the comparative receipts of dressed poultry from January 1 to date at Chicago, New York, Boston and Philadelphia.

1923	177,000,000 lbs.
1922	138,000,000 lbs.

Excess . . . . . 39,000,000 lbs.

That this excess has been consumed is the best evidence of the high regard in which poultry is held among the food products of the nation.

A plentiful supply of poultry, especially of spring chickens, at New York gave a weak tone to the market at the close.

Reports generally indicate a large crop to be marketed during the next few months.

Even marketing is suggested, as poultry plants are now generally so fixed that they have sufficient help to take care of the poultry as it is offered, unless there are great fluctuations in the movement.

The fine open weather throughout producing sections has brought a larger supply of fresh eggs to the market than is usual at this time of the year. The temperatures which have prevailed throughout the past week have caused many dealers to turn from storage eggs to current arrivals. This has stimulated demand and prices advanced a little at the close of the week.

There is a good demand for fine, fresh stock, but eggs which show "held" qualities are not wanted and sell at a discount. An egg is only fresh for a short time after it is laid and prompt collection and marketing will net better prices to the producer.

The demand for butter is about equal to the supply. There is no particular change in the market. Consumption is reported to be exceptionally good and while increased production may check any advance at present, yet there is every indication that the price will not go much lower, unless there should be a material increase in the importation of butter from foreign countries.

MANY FIRES BURN OVER MINNESOTA

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 3.—Thousands of fires are burning in peat bogs throughout the length and breadth of Minnesota according to estimates made today by the forestry department based on advice received from the department based on advice received from the department field men and private individuals returning from automobile trips. A few scattered brush and forest fires in the northern section of the state have sprung up from some of these peat fires, the department reported but on the whole the situation is fairly well in hand.

OVER PRODUCTION IS CAUSE OF LOW PRICE

(By the Associated Press)

Urbana, Ill.—Over production of any commodity tends to devalue the price and the dairy business is no exception to this rule, said Q. S. Rhode, of the agricultural college, University of Illinois.

"Milk Dealers," said Mr. Rhode, "are purchasing more cows with the idea of increasing the output of milk because of the high price. I know of one dealer who told of a neighbor who had been a chronic kicker of the price of milk. Immediately the dealer, bearing the high price in mind, started to increase production.

"If the dairymen add to their herds and greatly increase the production of their farms they will soon be confronted with a large surplus of milk and an unsatisfactory price."

"When dairymen get out of the practice of varying the size of their herds with the season and price of milk and work with more efficient producing herds built up by culling and breeding they will soon be maintaining a more uniform production. Uniform production will aid greatly in the marketing of their product."

Mrs. Harry Leadill was a Franklin visitor on the square Wednesday.

The Best Place to Trade After All

AT THE GRAND TONIGHT

The Selwyns are gradually extending their activities to proportions that will rival in importance the two foremost purveyors of stage entertainment, the Messrs. Shubert and A. L. Erlanger. Beautiful Selwyn theaters now include the Times Square, Apollo and Selwyn on Forty-second street in New York, the Selwyn in Chicago and the Selwyn in Boston and affiliation with the magnificent Hanna in Cleveland and others in important centers.

In the matter of productions this enterprising firm controls or possesses interests in fully a score of the most important plays now running in New York and on tour. The stars under their management include John Drew, Madam Olga Petrova, Leslie Carter, Barney Bernard, Alexander Carr, Wilton Lackaye, Henry E. Dixey, Amelia Bingham, Charlotte Walker and at least a score of players of slightly less luminary importance in the theatrical firmament. The latest acquisition to this brilliant galaxy is a no less popular stellar favorite than Chaucer Olcott, the lone commander-in-chief in the field of actor-singers. To inaugurate the Selwyn regime of Mr. Olcott a tour is now in progress in which will be seen a pretentious revival of this popular favorite's most successful play, "The Heart of Paddy Whack" at the Grand Thursday night only Oct. 4.

This romantic Irish drama has the distinction of holding all records for popularity in Olcott's long list of triumphs in his particular field of action. Rachel Crothers wrote "Paddy Whack," and as a delightful vehicle for the exploitation of the star's superior equipment as an actor and singer "Paddy" has never been equalled.

Louis Weber has returned from a business trip to Havana.

DR. PALMER DISCUSSES SANITARIUM PROBLEM

State Tuberculosis Representative Tells Local People That County Hospital Should be Saved.

A vote to abolish the county Tuberculosis sanitarium at Oak Lawn would be unfortunate, according to a statement by Dr. George Palmer, of the state Tuberculosis organization, made yesterday at a luncheon meeting at the Peacock Inn. The meeting was attended by a number of persons interested in the question and Dr. Palmer was the guest of honor.

It is known that a petition for putting the question of abolishing the sanitarium on the ballot has been filed at the court house, and the issue will no doubt be at the November election. Dr. Palmer regretted the fact that the issue had been raised, and stated that should the sanitarium be abandoned, it would be difficult to use the property for other purposes, as it has been especially designed to be a sanitarium. It would therefore be a dead expense to the county and perhaps a loss.

CITY PLAN BODY IN MEETING LAST NIGHT

Steps to push the project of a city plan for Jacksonville in dead earnest were taken last night at a meeting of the City Plan Commission. The president of the commission, Dr. C. H. Rammelkap, was in the chair. L. O. Vaught made an explanation of city plans in western communities, which he had studied in his trip this summer. Mayor E. E. Crabtree was present and addressed the commission on some aspects of the plan.

The finance committee reported that nothing had been done during the summer, and asked instructions as to the raising of money for the employment of planning engineers. The committee was instructed to proceed with the raising of $3,600 to be used in this work, and in the meantime the actual cost of the work is to be estimated by experts which the commission will consult for an estimate.

A publicity committee was authorized and will be appointed today. This body and the finance committee were instructed to have a report ready for the meeting Wednesday night.

DISTRICT C. OF C. IN IMPORTANT MEETING

State Officers Put on Program for Large Number of Delegates—Jerseyville Wants Organization

There was a good attendance at the district meeting of the Illinois Chamber of Commerce, held here yesterday. The meeting opened in the morning with E. E. Crabtree presiding in the absence of Dr. A. M. Hale, vice president of the district. The mayor made an address of welcome, after which he introduced James H. Bruecht, state field secretary, who explained the plan to secure uniform trail markings thruout the state. Harvey T. Hill, general secretary for the state, made announcement of the general meeting of the state Chamber of Commerce, to be held in Chicago on Oct. 16 and 17. Mr. Gilbert of the state department and a brother of M. E. Gilbert of this city who represented Secretary of State Emerson, then delivered an address on "Controlling the Sale of Fake Securities in Illinois."

President John H. Camlin and a number of the delegates did not arrive until a late morning train. They were taken to the headquarters, and made short talks before adjournment for the luncheon at the Pacific hotel.

The Local Spirit

At the morning session President R. Y. Rowe of the Jacksonville chamber of commerce before introducing the chairman, made brief reference to the work of the local organization and the attitude toward it, both of people of Jacksonville and in the surrounding area.

At the Pacific hotel luncheon a musical program was furnished by the Elite orchestra and after the luncheon President R. Y. Rowe introduced Mr. Camlin, who spoke on the theme, "Problems Affecting Business Men Thruout the State." In the course of his address Mr. Camlin presented some very interesting comparative facts between the U. S. and South America. He based these remarks upon more than a year's experience in South America as a trade commissioner for the U. S.

C. of C. Not Selfish

In conclusion he emphasized the fact that the chamber of commerce in Illinois and in the U. S. is not for the purpose of forming blocs for the furtherance of any special interest, but does purpose to bring the greatest good to the greatest number. Some practical suggestions were then made by P. F. McManus, vice president of the Illinois C. of C., who told of some of the industrial accomplishments of down state cities, making particular reference to Mt. Vernon, where a car building company does a very extensive business.

Adjournment was then taken to the chamber of commerce rooms.

The afternoon session of the convention was more or less informal. Mayor E. E. Crabtree, who is one of the directors of the Illinois Chamber of Commerce, presided, and called on a number of men for short talks.

The first speaker was H. H. Griswold, a member of the newly organized White Hall Chamber of Commerce. He told of the experience of that organization in procuring a knitting factory for the city. The factory is now well established in temporary headquarters and has 20 machines in operation. It was necessary to pay a small bonus to obtain the plant, but the White Hall business men are satisfied with results thus far.

The next speaker was Judge Harry Chapman of Jerseyville, who spoke encouragingly of efforts to organize a Chamber of Commerce in that city. A meeting of business men was held there Tuesday evening, at which it was definitely decided to undertake the organization.

Organization Must Function

Charles Jenks, secretary of the Springfield Chamber of Commerce, was next called upon for a speech. He told something of his experience with persons who asked advice as to the soundness of certain investments, especially those in newly organized local industries. He also stated that the only kind of an organization that was worth anything is a functioning organization. A Chamber of Commerce may have a thousand members, but if it does not function, it cannot last. Every such body should have an executive whose duty it is to see that the group of men associated together is functioning.

Mayor Crabtree also called upon Frank Mathews, ex-president of the local Trades and Labor Assembly, who emphasized the relations of co-operation and friendliness which exist between the business men and the element of organized labor in this city. He said that labor wants to be fair, and if it does not receive fair compensation, it cannot pay its bills to business. He said he looked forward to a time when all capital and labor would work on a basis of co-operation, and when differences could be submitted to a commission made up of business men and representatives of organized labor.

Talked of Water Systems

Inquiries were made by some of the delegates present as to the way in which Jacksonville obtained its water system, and Mayor Crabtree explained the matter. The inquiry was suggested by remarks of Dr. R. V. Brokaw, whom the mayor introduced as the only full time county health officer in Illinois. Dr. Brokaw emphasized the necessity of pure water and stated that Jacksonville had solved the problem. He said, however, that the city had yet to solve the problem of an adequate sewer system,

CHILD CUTS HAND IN FALL ON GLASS

Helen Muller, six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Muller, of Litchberry, suffered a serious injury to her hand yesterday when she fell on some glass while playing at her home. The hand was cut nearly to the bone, and the gash was wide. The child was brought to this city, where Dr. W. P. Duncan extracted some glass from the wound and dressed it. No stitches will be taken until Friday as the physician wishes to watch for infection. Unless infection sets in, no serious consequences are feared.

MISS REBHAN, KNOWN HERE, TO STUDY LAW

Miss Susan Rebhan, a graduate of I. W. C., who for a number of years has been prominently identified with work of the I. W. C. in New York, Cleveland and on the Pacific coast, has resigned her position to take up the study of law at the Ohio State university. Miss Rebhan is a great friend of Judge Florence Allen of Columbus, Ohio, who recently was elected to the Ohio supreme court and who is rapidly becoming known as one of the outstanding women lawyers of the country.

A Henderson of Havana spent Tuesday in this city in the interests of his business.

By request of many who wished again to see Mrs. Wallace Reid in "HUMAN WRECKAGE" at the RIALTO, and whose friends had not been able to go, this great moral play will appear again TODAY, last time, at the RIALTO.

JOHN MORLEY (A characted Study) (By W. D. Wood)

For the public in general, and especially for us in America, interest in Morley had its beginning with his accession to office in 1886. The passing of the old group of liberal leaders and the coming of the new made an unusual and very interesting situation, though not altogether simple and easy to measure and appraise. People who had looked up to Bright as a "pillar of political righteousness" had not yet learned to pay homage to some of the younger men who were to become the idols of a later generation. The political and personal ties formed in 1886 were strengthened by time and by contacts growing out of interest in a common cause, and it was most natural that Morley should be chosen to write Gladstone's life—the great biography in the language, and great not wholly because of the subject but partly because of the writer and interpreter. When the subordinate was preparing the life story of his chief, he found in the diary of the dead leader this entry: "John Morley is on the whole about the best stay I have." Commenting, the beneficiary of these appreciative words continues: "such service of itself is enough to sustain, fortify, elevate, amidst all that is negligible, trivial, migratory in every day politics." Association with Gladstone was an important part of Morley's public life, but after all, it was only a part. Membership in the House of Commons, covering a period of twenty-five years from 1883 to 1908, seventeen of them with his party in the minority, resulted in a number of attachments having marked personal and political influence, and from any record of his activities the names of Chamberlain, Gladstone, Harcourt, Rosebery, Campbell-Bannerman, Grey and Asquith cannot be omitted.

From a subordinate though not unimportant position in his party he steadily and surely became one of its most influential and trusted leaders. Twice chief secretary for Ireland, later secretary of state for India, he was measurably successful in the difficult task of meeting the demands of British rule and yet remaining true to the principles of Liberalism. A large and predominant body of Englishmen thought "government" meant coercion in Ireland and repression in India, and thus in high quarters there was small respect or confidence in liberalism as interpreted and applied by Mill or Gladstone or their partisans.

When made Viscount Morley of Blackburn in 1908 he continued at the India office but with constantly lessening burdens. At the same time there was increased attention to literary subjects, so that his lifelong interest in both literature and politics was continued. During all his life, though time and circumstances served to vary the emphasis placed upon these important matters of human concern, devotion to each never weakened and a true balance was maintained. But there are qualities that do not find freest and fullest expression in the field of literature or politics, and so account must be taken not only of the man of letters and the man of public affairs but also of the man himself. The ordinary standards of weight and measurement do not apply when a great man's gifts and graces are considered, and to know the man and see him whole it is necessary that the personal equation be taken into account. In the matter of Morley's friendships it is not easy to speak without using superlatives—George Meredith and John Stuart Mill, Chamberlain and Gladstone, Harcourt and Rosebery, Huxley and Herbert Spencer, Mazzini and Victor Hugo, Lord Acton and Matthew Arnold. It reads almost like a list of nineteenth century immortals. The names of those to whom he has been biographer and interpreter are hardly less suggestive and enlightening—Cromwell and Voltaire, Burke and Rousseau, Cobden and Gladstone.

Morley's relations to Mill, the teacher and inspirer of his youth, and to Gladstone, the companion and leader of his mature years, show forth his affection, gratitude and devotion and give assurance that loyalty was of the very essence of his being. This predominating quality of loyalty was manifest not alone in personal but also in adherence to political principles and to convictions in matters of belief. In many instances the personal and political elements can scarcely be separated and it is difficult to determine which one has furnished the governing motive in a given time of action. But it is certain that in matters touching his party and his fellow-partisans envy or personal pique had no place. His sturdy adherence to liberal principles has been encouraging, and whether the question was Irish home rule, or British rule in India, or the Boer war, or the Union of South Africa, his constancy and consistency never wavered or weakened. And he was as steadfast in matters of belief—or non-belief—as in his political opinions. In maintaining his own position he sometimes found himself disagreeing with the leadings or conclusions of some of his elders and teachers, but both in politics and matters of deeper concern he did not shrink from the conclusions of his own logic.

On the return of the Liberal party to power in 1906 Morley became and remained a commanding figure in the politics of the day. His change of base to the House of Lords in 1908 operated to lessen his activities but not his influence. In 1911 the measure limiting the veto power of the House of Lords became a law under circumstances that warranted the designation "A Crisis in Prerogative." The idea had been suggested by John Bright thirty years earlier, and to Morley it was given to witness its adoption and be the active agent in its enactment.

The war and England's action in it led to his retirement from public office in 1914. His resignation brought out pointed comment and animated conjecture—questionings that to the sore disappointment of many were not answered in the two octavo volumes of "Recollections" published some three years later. In 1922 it fell to him to move in the House of Lords the ratification of the compact between Great Britain and Southern Ireland whereby the Irish Free State became a member of the community of nations forming the British commonwealth of nations. Almost alone of those who in 1886 had participated in Gladstone's first battle for Irish home rule he saw and shared in the closing struggle. "The wheel had come full circle."

Thus something of the life story of one who lived out what Lowell calls "the brave old wisdom of sincerity," who as journalist and publicist, man of letters and superman of politics, was to the past generation and to the generation now living companion, inspirer, leader—John Morley, since the death of Gladstone the noblest figure in English life. And it could be of Morley, as was said of Gladstone, "You have so lived and wrought that you have kept the soul alive in England."

1922 WORLD'S SERIES GREAT "DOPE UPSETS"

NEW YORK, Oct. 3. (By the A. P.)—The world's series of 1922 provided one of the great "dope upsets" of championship history, the New York Giants defeating the New York Yankees in five games. The Giants won four and one game was tied.

Rated greater and more powerful than the Giants because of their pitching staff, the American League pennant winners were made favorites, despite the fact that they had been defeated by the Giants in 1921.

In the first game with Art Nehf, of the Giants, and "Bullet Joe" Bush, of the Yankees, being opposing pitchers, the Giants won 3 to 2, scoring all their runs in the eighth inning. The second game, which went ten innings, ended in a 3-3 tie. Bob Shawkey pitched for the Yankees and was opposed by Jess Barnes.

The Nationals then won three straight games and the series. John Scott, in a remarkable pitching exhibition, shut out the Yankees, whose pitcher was Waite Hoyt, 3 to 0 in the third game of the series. Hugh McCullen won the fourth game for the Giants, 4 to 3, outpitching Carl Mays. Nehf again defeated Bush in the deciding game, 5 to 3.

The Giants, as a team, batted .309 in the five games and the Yankees team average at bat was only .203.

ROUTT HIGH TO TACKLE ROODHOUSE

Game Will Be Played on Illinois Grounds—Routt Team Has Been Strengthened.

Routt High tackles Roodhouse on the Illinois gridiron Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. It will be remembered that in Routt's first game by a very lop-sided score, the Roodhouse team finally winning the championship of Central Illinois high schools, but they are somewhat weakened this year by the graduation of some of their best players.

Coach Coenen has been trying out some new men and is working the team hard in anticipation of this contest. Mallen, star end on last year's team, who was injured at the beginning of the season, will be in the game Saturday for the first time this season. Several other important changes in last Saturday's lineup, especially in the back field, are certain to take place. Routt expects to present a very much improved team at the kickoff Saturday, and if at the final whistle they are not even with Roodhouse for last year's defeat, it will not be because they have failed to put up a tough fight.

LITERBERRY

The Literberry mission circle met on Saturday afternoon at Maple Mound with Mrs. John Guy as hostess, assisted by her daughter Elinor. Eight members were present and the business of the summer meetings was brought to a close. Delegates from the Baptist Association during the first week in the month; they are: Mrs. Guy, Mrs. Beavers, Mrs. J. A. Litter and Mrs. Warren Daniels. There were readings by all the members under the subject of Reports from the Firing Line. Miss Edith Scribner gave a poem "Peace Be to This Home," which was very good. "The Old Rugged Cross" was sung, while Mrs. Guy played the piano accompaniment. The Victrola sang "When I Look on His Face." A good collection was taken.

Refreshments were served at the proper time and a social hour was enjoyed. All members took part in the closing prayer, asking for a special blessing to attend the services of the Association at Winchester.

Mrs. Walter Roach called for the October meeting.

The chairman of the Reading Contest was ordered to send for the Study Books of the Home and Foreign work for 1923-24.

Ho Hum! Here Are the Yanks, Winners Again

Speaking of monopolies and other evils, how about these New York ball clubs that keep on hogging all the baseball glory in the big leagues? Herewith is presented one-half of the vicious corporation, Mr. Miller Huggins and his high-priced Yankees, winners of the American League championship for the third time. Reading from the well-known left to right, seated: Bengough, c; Haines, of; Gehrig, of; Pipp, g; Johnson, lf; Gazella, lf; Hendricks, cf. Center row: Jones, p; Witt, c; Scott, ss; Schang, c; Huggins, manager; O'Leary, coach; McNally, lf; Ward, 2b; Dugan, 3b. Rear row: Woods, trainer; Bush, p; Meusel, rf; Hoffman, c; Penneck, p; Hoyt, p; Shawkey, p; Smith, rf; Mays, p; Roettger, c; Babe Ruth (than which there is none whither), Pipp, 1b.

BASEBALL PLAYERS ON CASUALTY LIST

Four New York Yanks on Disabled List Expected to be in Condition for Opening Game.

New York, Oct. 3.—Four members of the New York Yankees including Babe Ruth, their star of stars were on the casualty list today but with a week remaining before the opening of the series, all are expected to round into condition again by the time the club takes the field against the Giants.

Wally Pipp, whose ankle injury was reported to be so serious that he might not be able to start the series, hobbled into the Yankee's office today aided by a cane to announce that he was improving rapidly and would be at last base for the American League champions in the opening game. Pipp twisted his ankle in Boston recently.

Ruth, who was discussed as a likely substitute at the initial bag in case Pipp is kept out, also has a tender ankle. The injury is not serious but he will give it all the rest it needs for the next few days. The Babe also developed a slight infection of the hand in Boston but this was said to have practically disappeared.

McNally, utility infielder and Bob Meusel, outfielder and the others on the casualty list both with sprained ankles.

The Yankees return tomorrow to the stadium for a series with the Athletics that will wind up the season for both clubs. The Huggins expect to have workouts Monday and Tuesday on the Polo Grounds, home of their rivals, to familiarize themselves with lights and shadows of the reconstructed enclosure.

The Giants go to Baltimore tomorrow to continue their series with the Orioles International League champions.

Mrs. C. N. Seymour of Franklin who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. W. Leggett the past week returned to her home yesterday, accompanied by Mrs. Leggett who will spend the week at the home of her parents.

WOMEN'S GOLF GAMES DEVELOP INTEREST

RYE, N. Y., Oct. 3.—(By The A. P.)—The victory of Miss Alexa Stirling over Myriam Burns of Kansas City, the Western champion at the 18th hole; Miss Glenna Collett's fine medal score in defeating Dorothy Hieble of Chicago and Miss Edith Cummings' 7 and 6 decision over Miss Audrey Faust of St. Louis were the interesting points today in the second round play for the women's national golf championship.

Despite her fine driving and approaching Miss Stirling tottered on the brink of defeat by the girl from the west, who was better of the two at the shorter game. It was only the finest sort of golf in the last hole that brought victory to the former champion.

The best golf of the round was played by Miss Collett, the defending champion. She turned the first nine holes in 37 one stroke under women's par, as it is figured on the shortened course and then in par figures won the next two holes and the match 8 up and 7 to play.

Miss Cummings was never in trouble with Miss Faust and won 7 to 6.

DARKNESS HALTS THE DIXIE SERIES
Fort Worth, Texas, Oct. 3.—Darkness halted the sixth game of the Dixie championship series between the New Orleans Southern association titleholders and the Fort Worth Texas League pennant winners here this afternoon in the ninth inning with the score tied 2 and 2. The series could still stand Fort Worth 3; New Orleans 2.

MERRIMAN BREAKS OWN WORLD RECORD

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 3.—Merriman, driven by Murphy, broke his own world's record for four year old geldings, when he won the Cumberland stake in 2:01 1/2 during the Grand Circuit races here today. Julia M. Direct was second, Wrack third, and The Sign fourth.

SEVEN LETTER MEN ON NEBRASKA TEAM

URBANA, Oct. 3.—Nebraska will bring seven letter men to Illinois Field Saturday to play the Illini in the biggest early season game in the Midwest. Coach Fred Dawson of the Huskers is bringing 25 men to Urbana.

Nebraska will have five men in the line-up starting their third season as regulars on the Nebraska team and one man who is starting his second season. This comparison gives Nebraska much the best of experience proposition for Capt. McMillon, most experienced man on the Illini team, is now in his third year but didn't get a letter his first year like Nebraska's five men did.

Capt. Vern Lewellen will pilot the Cornhuskers from quarterback position. Lewellen is a hard hitting player and has proven his ability as a quarterback. He has able assistance in the backfield with Noble and H. Dewitz, halfbacks, and Hartman, fullback. Noble is a sprinter, while Hartman and H. Dewitz are plungers. The Cornhuskers are noted for straight football tactics and have consistent ground gainers in their backfield using these tactics.

Experience will not predominate on the Husker line. Coach Dawson has Rhodes and Collins, two green men at end; McGlasgow, veteran tackle, with either Bassett or Weir, green men, as his partner. Barquist is a veteran guard but the other guard will be either Hendrickson, Reed or Packer, who are inexperienced; Fastoupol will be over the ball and is inexperienced.

BASE BALL CLOSES IN PHILADELPHIA

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 3.—The baseball season closed in this city today Philadelphia taking the final game of the series from Washington 12 to 8. The victory gave the home club a clean sweep of the final series on the local grounds and was largely due to the wildness of Roe, a recruit pitcher for the Senators, who walked six men in the second inning.

Score:
Washington 000 200 033—8 15 2
Philadelphia 043 002 30x—12 9 0
Roe, Warmouth, Schmetski and Ruel, Hargrave; Meeker and Perkins.

REUTHER'S VICTORIES NUMBER FIFTEEN

BOSTON, Oct. 3.—Reuther brought his season's string of victories to 15 today by defeating Boston 8 to 6. The Brooklyn club accordingly will pay his promised of $1,000 bonus for this number of wins. Fournier's hitting and Melinus' work at first base were the only features of the game.

Score:
Brooklyn .012 021 200—8 15 0
Boston .100 000 104—6 10 2
Reuther and Ainsmith; Marquard, Fillingim, Oeschger and O'Neill, Gibson.

RUTH BRIGHT LIGHT ON YANKEE TEAM

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Over-shadowing even the excellent team play, the sterling work of the pitching staff and the uncanny field defense of the New York Yankees, American League pennant winners this season, were the performances of Babe Ruth, the year's star of stars in the major leagues.

Called the "Incorrigible Boy of Baseball," because of his displays of temperament in 1921 and 1922, Ruth came back to the game this year with but one idea—to give his best. He has not been the home-run hitter he was in 1921 but the all-time record for circuit swats in a season was set with his 59. But he has not been out of the game because of boyish pranks, and his all-around play has surpassed anything he has shown before.

Ruth has been the greatest individual asset in the present Yankee combination of stars and is being selected by many baseball writers as the greatest individual player of the season on any team. He has hit home runs aplenty, but not as many as in 1921. His batting record, however, close around the 470 mark all season, is filled with singles, doubles and triples—blows that came when men were on base and runs needed. He has been such a terror at bat that the number of intentional bases on balls given him by opposing pitchers has set a new record.

Around Ruth—the new Ruth—the Yankee attack has been clustered thruout the season. Taking their cue from him the other members of the team set into a perfect combination, with the result that the club has won the pennant with one of the greatest winning margins on record.

FINAL GAME WITH MURRAYVILLE SUNDAY

Indees Ready to Put Up a Strong Battle—Last Game of Season

On account of wet grounds, the fifth and deciding game between the Indees and the Murrayville Merchants was postponed last Sunday, but this game will be held next Sunday afternoon at South Side Park at 2:45 o'clock, weather permitting, this being the last game of the 1923 series for the Indees. A three game series with the Quincy Cubs, a colored organization, was contemplated, but as the weather is now becoming so uncertain it was thought best to call the deal off. So all who wish to witness the last game of the current season should be on hand early and bring their rooting apparatus with them for it is a certain thing that Murrayville will do her part in the rooting line as that town is filled with red-hot fans.

There has been a rumor circulated about town that for unstated reasons the coming game has been "fixed" for Murrayville to win. Manager Smith wishes to make positive denial of this rumor insofar as he has been able to learn thru investigation. Smith has always striven to give the local fans good baseball and clean baseball, quite often dropping a bit of coin to do so, and for his sake such rumors should either be substantiated or should be immediately dropped. Murrayville also has always been a clean sport town and their team is no exception to this rule, so the rumor is probably the result of the imagination of some overzealous fan.

Market Report

STOCK MARKET IN VIGOROUS UPTURN

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Heavy buying for the short account, which apparently was becoming over-extended, brought about a vigorous upturn in prices in today's stock market, the first million share day since September 13.
The rally, which was generally construed as a correction of a week end technical condition was conducted without relation to news developments. Several of the large commission houses reported that the buying came largely from professional sources, so-called public participation being of a negligible character.

The upward movement started in the railroad shares, buying of which was influenced by the August earnings statements now being published.

Baltimore & Ohio and Chesapeake & Ohio, which are reported to be earning about $20 a share each were run up another point or so as were Wabash preferred.

A. New York Central, Northern Pacific, Union Pacific, Lackawanna, Lehigh Valley, Erie First preferred and several others.
Reading was pushed up 3/8. Baldwin in which the short interest is supposed to be unusually large, made the best showing among the so-called pivotal stocks, closing 5 points higher at 120 after having sold slightly above that figure.

United States Steel crossed 89 for a net gain of nearly two points and American Can closed 3 points higher at 92 1/2.

The weekly steel trade reviews report a further slight contraction in output of both pig iron and steel.

Today's market was not without its weak spots. Jones Brothers Tea broke below 30 to a new low for the year on unofficial reports.
Money rates were somewhat excessive.

U. S. Government bond issues with the exception of the tax exemption 3 1/2s which improved continued to be offered freely in today's trading.

Why Fear Child-birth

EXPECTANT mothers do not undergo useless suffering any longer, and baby's birth can be made gloriously easier.

Mrs. Wm. Plack, 115 N. 12th St., Leavenworth, Kansas, says: "Mother's Friend" is the best help in the world for an expectant mother. I am the mother of three children and have found "Mother's Friend" fine.

"Mother's Friend" is externally applied about the abdomen, back and hips. It penetrates wonderfully, and in this way allows the muscles and ligaments to relax easily and readjust themselves to the changes during expectancy and at child-birth.

Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradford Regulator Co., B-73, Atlanta, Ga., for free booklet containing valuable information every expectant mother should have.

"Mother's Friend" contains no narcotics or harmful drugs. It is safe. There is no substitute. Avoid useless greases and plain oils. Start using "Mother's Friend" now—the sooner the better. "Mother's Friend" is sold at all good drug stores—everywhere.
